Fire station fears after house blaze

A DEVASTATING house fire on Saturday has led to a call for 24-hour staffing at Haverhill Fire Station.

Amanda Coltman, of Colbeck Road, Haverhill, saw her kitchen and conservatory damaged in a fire that spread from her garden shed to her house on Saturday afternoon.

She was at a barbecue at her neighbour's when she noticed smoke in the sky and went into the street.

Amanda, 46, said: "I saw thick black smoke and screamed for my husband. Another neighbour had already called the fire brigade."

"It took so quickly. Within five minutes it went from the shed down our wooden fence and into our house."

Suffolk Fire and Rescue received a call to the fire at 4.40pm that day. They sent three fire crews to the site. Two pumps were used and the fire was out by 5.50pm.

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

Four garden sheds, including Ms Coltman's, were damaged, as well as her home.

The damage to the house was so substantial that Ms Coltman has been told it may be six to 12 months before she can live there again.

She said: "The firemen were excellent, but I would like to complain about the fact that we don't have a full-time fire service in Haverhill."

Haverhill Fire Station is "day-crewed", meaning that during weekday working hours it is fully staffed, but on evenings and weekends it is an "on-call" station. This means that at these times, the equipment remains at the fire station, but the staff are not there. They are called to the station if there is a fire, and go from there to the scene of the fire.

The Colbeck Road fire was attended by "on-call" crews. The fire service says its response time in this instance was approximately nine minutes. Ms Coltman claims she was waiting more than 20 minutes for them to arrive.

She said: "The fire service being there earlier would have made a big difference to the outcome."

"If you don't have a fire at the right time of day you lose out."

"A neighbour's already written to the council about this, and I've contacted the local MP. I want Matthew Hancock to come and have a look at my garden."

Mr Hancock, MP for West Suffolk,

ENVIRONMENT

Anger at loss of wildflowers

WILDFLOWERS have been destroyed after grass verges in a park were cut.

Embankments in Haverhill Flood Park, also known as Meldham Washlands or West Town Park, are home to a huge variety of wildflowers, including bee orchids, pyramidal orchids, knapweed, meadowsweet and birdsfoot.

Early this year, Environment Agency cut away scrub growth on the banks in order to maintain the reservoir in the park.

Retired park ranger Dave Bax said: "We usually see all the glorious wildflowers. It just incensed me no end to see they have mown it down."

"It's such a spectacular display and now it's just a brown, dried-up mess. Couldn't they have left it just for a couple of months?"

Mr Bax says there are also ground-nesting birds which live on the embankments. One species there is the meadow pipit, which the RSPB has rated "amber" for conservation concern, as its numbers are declining.

A wildlife walk in the park,

HANNAH MIRSKY

@HannahMirskyCN which had been scheduled as part of the Haverhill Festival, had to be cancelled after the plants were cut.

John Smithson, parks operations manager for St Edmundsbury Borough Council, said: "We had to cancel the walk because the floristic interest wasn't there, which was quite frustrating and disappointing."

"We have spoken to the Environment Agency to ask why it was cut. Their response was to do with flood defence issues so that they can maintain the site, which we can't really comment on as we're not flood defence engineers."

"What we have asked of them is for a meeting to discuss whether we maintain the site for flood defence, and keep the floristic interest."

The meeting has been scheduled for July 27.

Mr Bax wrote to the Environment Agency when he discovered that the banks had been mown.

He received a reply on June 15. It read: "The recent cutting we did in Haverhill Flood Park was needed as engineers and our staff have to carry out monitoring and surveillance to ensure this water-retaining structure is in a safe and good condition. We also do this maintenance to ensure the reservoir performs as it was designed; large sections of this reservoir must work as weirs and a short grass cover is essential to ensure the structure is resilient during overtopping events."

The letter also stated that the Environment Agency had consulted internally and was aware that the mowing would cause some damage to the flora and fauna of the park.

FLAMES: Crews tackle the barn fire in West Wrattling yesterday

Farmer stopped hay fire spreading

A FARMER has been praised for preventing the spread of fire at a barn containing 1,000 tonnes of hay.

The blaze started yesterday morning at the barn in Six Mile Bottom Road, West Wrattling.

The farmer worked with his son in already blistering hot weather conditions to remove unaffected bales – and also ploughed around the barn to prevent surrounding grass catching fire. Pete Jones, a station commander at Cambridgeshire Fire and Rescue Service, said:

"His efforts have really helped prevent what is an unfortunate accident turning into a much larger and more serious fire."

The cause of the fire, which is expected to burn for several days, is not yet known, but is not believed to be weather-related.

COURT

Driver prosecuted for failing to give breath test to police

A MOTORIST who tried and failed to give a breath test to police has been prosecuted.

Trevor Palmer, 61, pleaded guilty to failing to provide a specimen at Cambridge Magistrates Court on Tuesday.

He was reported to police by a member of the public who had spotted his vehicle and was pulled over and arrested in Cardinals Green, near Haverhill.

Tessa Mann, prosecuting, told magistrates that Palmer was not "uncooperative" while in custody but failed to breathe correctly into the tube to provide a reading for police, despite being given numerous chances to do so.

Jane Carpenter, mitigating, said that Palmer, of The Annexe, Castle Camps, works as a self-employed builder and would lose profit with the loss of his licence.

She added: "He is of previous good character."

Magistrates disqualified Palmer from driving for 12 months and fined him £700.

He must also pay £70 victim surcharge, £85 costs and £150 court charge.

SCHOOLS got out and about last week with sports day activities.

At Samuel Ward Academy, students from the three school houses competed in a variety of events including running races, javelin and shot putt. Darwin house won the day, followed by Brunel and then Cavell.

Coupons Primary Academy, another school in the Samuel Ward Academy Trust, also held its sports day last week. Head of school David Maguire said: "Every pupil at the academy demonstrated excellent sportsmanship in cheering on their classmates, teammates and even their rivals."

POLICE

Village police station closes

A VILLAGE police station will close its doors on Wednesday as its lease expires.

The Harp Lane police station in Clare is currently the base for the St Edmundsbury Rural South Safer Neighbourhood Team (SNT), but an expired lease on the building mean the team has had to move.

From July 8 the team, made up of a sergeant, two police officers, three PCSOs and a special constable, will be based at Haverhill Police Station in the town's Swan Lane.

However, they will keep a policing base in Clare by holding weekly drop-in meetings.

The first meeting will take place on Tuesday, July 14, from 10am to noon. From then on, the meetings will take place at the same time every week at the fire station in the village's Station Road.

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

A police telephone wall will also be set up at the fire station so residents without a mobile phone can get in touch with their SNT.

Suffolk Police and Crime Commissioner Tim Passmore said: "I'm sure everyone will agree that enabling the SNT to use fire station is a practical and value-for-money solution."

The SNT will continue their patrols in Clare and the surrounding villages as normal.

St Edmundsbury borough

councillor for Clare Alaric Pugh said: "Everybody benefits because the officers get to be closer briefings from their manager in Haverhill, and they've still got a place in Clare where Clare residents can make contact. The Haverhill and Clare team are run by exactly the same officer. As residents of Clare we are not losing anything."

"This is exactly the sort of negotiation that should be happening in the public sector. This has had a pretty full-scale consultation."

Mr Passmore spoke about the changes at Clare town council meeting on June 18.

Station fears after terrifying house fire confirmed he had received her message. He said: "I have written to the chief executive of Suffolk County Council asking her to look into this as a matter of urgency."

Ms Coltman is considering starting a petition, and is planning on contacting the local fire service. She also expressed her thanks to the local community, who rallied round her, her husband Dave, 48 and son Daniel, 26, after the fire. They have offered the family food, washing and places to stay.

Ms Coltman said: "Everyone was so kind and so helpful. At times like this you see how people just get together."

Residents sign petition on housing

A PLAN to rip out residents' garages and replace them with affordable housing has led to the launch of an online petition.

A planning application by Havebury Housing Association to replace garages in Haverhill's Nayland Road with homes was approved on appeal last month. It had previously been rejected by St Edmundsbury Borough Council's planning committee.

An online petition calling for the plans to be abandoned was launched on Saturday. At the time of going to press it had been signed by 66 people.

Signatories commented on why they want the plan abandoned.

One wrote: "We HAVE to do everything we can to stop Havebury pushing homes into every possible gap of land they own when it has such a knock-on effect to the community."

Another said: "Housing is getting out of control in Haverhill with so many new builds, the wider picture has to be looked at and not just build on any potential available space."

Extravaganza to open new park

A NEW children's area was officially opened in Haverhill at the weekend.

The new play area at Haverhill's Recreation Ground was officially opened on Saturday.

The new park was officially unveiled at the Castle Partnership Community Extravaganza on Saturday.

Mayor of Haverhill Cllr Betty McLatchy attended, but the ribbon to open the park was cut by a giant bouncing kangaroo on stilts. The kangaroo then stayed at the park to enjoy the event.

Hundreds of families turned out for Saturday's event.

Madeleine Vigar, executive principal of the Castle Partnership Academy Trust, said: "I was proud to see our young people and staff leading Haverhill in this excellent event to kickstart the summer."

"This event marks our essential role at the heart of this wonderful community."

Entertainment at the extravaganza included a clown named Captain Calamity, a performance from the Fire and Ice Majorettes, and music from the pupils of St Felix, Place Farm and Burton End Primary Schools.

ELEANOR DICKINSON

@e_dickinsonCN

The day also featured craft stalls, live animals and charities, and many families enjoyed a picnic.

The theme of the extravaganza was "Every Child a Reader", and the stalls had reading-themed decorations.

Castle Manor teacher Becky Baldwin, who is responsible for community engagement across the trust, said: "I am so pleased with how the day has gone. Everybody has had lots of fun, including myself."

"We have made strong links with many of the groups here today and we have already started to plan further projects together for the benefit of our students and the Haverhill community."

However, some parents and grandparents have complained about the absence of benches at the event.

St Edmundsbury Council has said it intends to have seating installed by the start of the summer holidays.

One grandmother said: "So that's the Jubilee park and the Rec where grandparents have the choice of standing or sitting on the ground."

"These parks were obviously designed by young, supple people who have no children. I bet parks in Bury have benches. It makes me so mad."

Another mum said: "I don't understand the logic behind no benches."

"It's not really fair to deprive adults of a seat to sit on. It just means less children will get taken for a day out at the park."

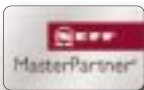

A spokesman for St Edmundsbury Council said about the lack of seating: "It was always our intention for there to be benches at the park, and while we were unable to get them installed in time for Saturday's opening, we are working to get them installed in time for the school summer holidays."

The Recreation Ground will play host to another party, the Summer Bash, on July 19.

People in town are not happy

KEDINGTON residents are not happy with the North East Development in Haverhill which encroaches on the village.

There are a lot of people in Haverhill who are not happy – they feel ignored by the planning department of Suffolk County Council.

The plans are too big for our town that is already suffering from many issues such as healthcare, employment, the run-down town and lack of facilities. The increase in violent crime, traffic congestion etc.

Do we want another 5,000-plus vehicles running through the already badly increased traffic on the Chalkstone estate, or to wait even longer to see a doctor or dentist?

It will increase the population by a possible 10,000 with mostly families. And the meagre gesture of a green space with golf putting course, a couple of small shops with a infant school plus healthcare site.

First of all, leave it alone and the space is already green. As for employment, how much full-time employment will this bring for the 2,500 households – potentially 5,000 looking for work with mostly part-time jobs.

We in Haverhill pay an increased council tax of an extra £65 per household, this includes Kedington and Clare, more than Bury St Edmunds and Newmarket.

Why? Because this £65 is for our town council which is the fourth element the billing authority are informed to include. Chief executive Ian Gallin of St Edmundsbury Borough Council confirmed this so the increase in funds is an incentive.

They have so-called consultations but anyone who went along didn't get firm answers and we are suppose to go through a complicated procedure to enquire or object.

I also many feel leaflets were badly produced – no one could make out the plans/maps.

So Kedington protesters, welcome to the real problem – no one gets a real consultation and it will be pushed through regardless. So If Mr Paul Davis you would like any more names to oppose the Wilsey Park development, ask residents in Haverhill like on the Chalkstone Estate.

School gets good report

A PRIMARY school has received an Ofsted rating of "good".

The inspectors visited Westfield Primary Academy in Chalkstone Way on June 10 and 11.

They described many aspects of school life there as "good" including quality of teaching and leadership.

Head of school Nicky Tyler, who took over the role in January, said: "I am very, very proud of the school. I am really pleased about the way they said the pupils learn and play harmoniously."

Bands raise hundreds for burglary victim Tony

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

A DRUM tutor whose studio was raided by thieves has been given hundreds of pounds – after local musicians held a fundraising concert.

Burglars broke down the fire door of Tony Mumford's studio in an industrial unit in Homefield Road on January 11 this year. They took equipment worth £2,000, including monitors and speakers.

Fellow Haverhill musician Darren Bardoe decided to raise money for Tony at an annual music festival he organises in Bishop's Stortford.

The festival, known as Vernfest, featured 14 bands in total, including three from the Haverhill area: Bad Monkey Driver, the Thursday Club, and the Love Marbles. It took place on Saturday, June 20.

Darren said: "We really did have a good day. All the bands went on time and everyone enjoyed it."

"The only thing that let us down a little bit was the weather, but the sun started coming out around 5pm and then it was packed."

ON STAGE: Haverhill Band The Thursday Club perform at Vernfest in Bishop's Stortford

Each year the concert chooses different causes to raise money for. Darren said: "We thought: 'It's a good music-related cause'."

"Anyone who knows Tony knows he's one of the nicest, most giving people you could meet."

They succeeded in making £500 for Tony, as well as raising money for St Elizabeth Hospice.

Tony, who teaches for Haverhill Drum Tuition, plans to use the funds to buy a PA speaker system.

He said: "Then the students will be able to hear what they are playing. We're just running it through a hi fi at the moment."

Tony, who also plays in That Eighties Band, is using equipment borrowed from other musicians after the burglary.

He said about the concert: "It's nice that people do rally together and do this kind of thing. It restores a bit of faith in humanity."

"People just go round doing these things like the burglary and they've got no morals at all."

"I think it's brilliant if a community gets together like that."

POLICE

New team set to tackle crime

A NEW proactive team has been launched to help Suffolk Police meet savings challenges.

The Scorpion/Drugs
Team is an amalgamation of the former Scorpion Teams, Territorial Support Teams, AN-
PRIT Team and Night Time
Economy Team.

It will target drug crime and other crime and disorder issues across the county.

It has been created in light of the Suffolk Local Policing Review, which looked at how to reorganise teams to meet central government savings challenges while still offering high-quality policing.

The team, which became fully operational on Tuesday, will be run by Temporary Supt Bernie Morgan.

He said: "This unit has specialist skills and is

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

equipped to proactively tackle force-wide and local policing priorities, while responding to the needs of local people," said T/D Supt.
Morgan

"We know that the nature of crime is changing rapidly, so we have set the team up to be fully flexible and able to meet the demands we face now and those predicted to emerge in the future."

The team will be made up of three Scorpion Sergeants and 30 constables, as well as one drugs team detective sergeant and six constables.

They will be based across the county, including one base near Haverhill in Bury St Edmunds. There will also be bases in Ipswich and Lowestoft.

"Officers have the ability to perform all the tasks previously carried out by the former proactive teams, with the capability to perform plain-clothes duties
when required," said T/D Supt. Morgan.

"They will respond dynamically to crime reports or intelligence, and will carry out pre-planned work to tackle crime priorities across the county. The latest technology such as automatic number plate recognition (ANPR) will be used to target criminals using the county's roads.

"Intelligence will also play key part in assisting our investigations and I would encourage members of the public to work with us."

COUNCIL

Scheme cracks down on fraud

YOU could help the county council crack down on fraud – by passing on your scam letters.

Suffolk Trading Standards has launched a scheme called “Scamnesty” to encourage residents to report fraud.

The project will see bins put out across the county, into which residents can put any mail or leaflets they suspect may be fraudulent.

The material collected will then be shared with the National Scams Hub in order to help them combat fraud across the country.

The bins will be placed in libraries across the county through July, including Haverhill library, and those in the surrounding villages, except Kedington.

They will also be available at Citizens Advice Bureaux, including the one in Bury St Edmunds’ Risbygate Centre, and in council buildings.

Suffolk county councillor Sarah Stamp, cabinet member for communities, said: “I have been out with our Trading Standards team and have seen first-hand the dreadful impact these scams can cause.

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

“An essential part of stopping fraudsters preying on vulnerable people is to make sure incidents are reported.

“I encourage anybody who receives any material they consider suspicious – or who is aware of any sent to an elderly relative – to report it to Trading Standards or post it in their local Scamnesty bin.”

To report scams which come through phone calls, texts or emails, you can call Trading Standards on 0345 404 0506, and follow the campaign on Twitter using the hashtag #Suffolk Scamnesty.

The campaign is being run in partnership with BBC Radio Suffolk. Presenter Mark Murphy said: “I am thrilled to be playing my part in helping to keep vulnerable members of our communities safe and empowered.

“I will be using my show to speak to people whose lives have been directly affected by scammers as well as those that tackle the issue daily through education, advice and enforcement work.”

If you’d like to get involved in protecting residents from scams, which hit three million people nationwide each year, you can apply to be a Suffolk Consumer Champion. Visit suffolk.gov.uk/jointhefight to find out more.

HEARTWARMING: John and Dot Gowers with Aron Woodward of Hanningtons

Prize helps buy new wedding ring

A CAMPAIGN to encourage Haverhill residents to shop locally has netted one man £100 to spend on a new wedding ring for his wife.

John Gowers, who travels from Braintree, Essex, to shop in the town once a week, won the prize as part of a Buy Local campaign launched on website thebestofHaverhill.

Mr Gowers and his wife Dot chose to spend the cash at their favourite independent business in Haverhill, Hanningtons Jewellers, where they have shopped for the last five years.

He said: “My wife has decided that after 46 years of being married to me she deserves a new wedding ring.”

Elaine Carr, owner of thebestofHaverhill, said: “I am so pleased that we had a Buy Local winner in Haverhill.

“It is good to see that people from both within and outside of the town are supporting our local economy.

“The story behind John and Dot deciding to put the £100 towards a new wedding ring for Dot after 46 years of marriage is truly heartwarming.

“It’s great that they decided to spend the money with Hanningtons Jewellers, who are a fantastic local business.”

FOOD & DRINK

First beer fest comes to town

WHEN temperatures soar, there is nothing more satisfying than a nice cold beer to take the heat off.

And luckily Haverhill will be overflowing with the stuff as the town hosts its first ever beer festival this weekend.

Taking place in Market Square, the two-day festival will feature live music and a variety of food served alongside different ales from six English breweries and four craft lagers.

The event was organised by St Edmundsbury Borough Council as part of a series of market events in the town.

Cllr Alaric Pugh, cabinet member for planning and growth, said: "We hope Haverhill's first open-air beer festival on the Market Square will be an immense success and become a regular feature on our calendar of events."

"With lots of different beers to sample, fine foods,

ELEANOR
DICKINSON
@e_dickinson

live music, arts, crafts and of course our fantastic loyal bunch of regular stallholders on the Saturday, this has all the ingredients of being a brilliant weekend in the town and will hopefully attract visitors from far and wide."

The beer festival will be run by The Market Square Group.

In addition to beer, there will be a variety of Indian and Thai food served and stalls selling Spanish saucisson, French cheeses, arts, crafts, clothing and jewellery.

Paul Kennedy, event director at Market Square Group said: "We can't wait to bring this event to Haverhill and are looking forward to a great weekend with all the family."

It is hoped the event will draw more residents and visitors into Haverhill town centre, but some have expressed misgivings about the festival's impact on pubs.

One resident wrote on Facebook: "In the short term this is great for local residents. In the long term...to me it seems like two local pubs will be missing out on a great opportunity to gain revenue."

However, another wrote: "I think this is a brilliant thing for the town."

"If the survival of the town's pubs rest solely on these two days they've got bigger problems."

The event will be open from 10am to 9pm on Saturday, and from 10am to 7pm on Sunday with beer served from 11am. Entry is free.

To book a stall, visit marketsquaregroup.co.uk.

GOOD ADVICE: England star Rob Webber instructs Haverhill pupils

Pupils play with England stars

STUDENTS from Haverhill jumped into the scrum with some of the country's top rugby players last week.

Pupils from Castle Manor Academy travelled to Camberley RFC in Surrey for a special training session with England players Geoff Parling and Rob Webber.

They joined students from four other schools from around the nation for the event held during School Sports Week.

Graham Ellis, who teaches PE, said: "Today has been a great experience. We hope that it will sow seeds about continuing to play rugby in the future not only for the students here today, but for others in the school.

"All Schools has been a massively important programme for us and has made a real impact with our students with really high numbers now playing rugby."

Adam Kuczynski, a student at Castle Manor Academy, said: "I've had such a great time here – so has everyone else from the school. It was brilliant to meet Geoff and Rob and we got some good advice from them during the skills session."

"I started playing rugby three years ago when it was introduced in school and enjoy it so much this season I joined Haverhill RFC as well."

Cambridge Comedy Festival

A NNUAL funny fest Cambridge Comedy Festival returns once again this month, and the line-up is suitably packed with Edinburgh preview shows from some of the worthiest of performers. With 26 shows over six days, here are our top six picks:

1 Rob Beckett: Mouth of the South

Beckett is never without a massive grin, whether he's presenting I'm A Celebrity, Get Me Out of Here! NOW! Or adding up wrong on 8 Out of 10 Cats Does Countdown. In his new show he'll be chatting about Kit Kats, families and flatbread.

2 Richard Herring: Happy Now?

Mustachioed Herring will be asking just how content we all are with our lives, having recently nabbed himself a wife and baby. He's worried that responsibility for the lives of others comes with its own terrors. You've gotta laugh at the dark side of life.

3 Joel Dommett: Conquer

Live in Chelsea presenter Dommett is a new kid on the block but that doesn't mean he won't make you cackle happily.

4 Jo Caulfield: Awkward Conversations

Caulfield, pictured, is one of the funniest people around at the moment. Her new show is packed with "hysterical arguments and embarrassing misunderstandings", as well as all those moments she wished she'd verbalised a better come back.

5. Ed Byrne

You can't beat a bit of self-deprecating Ed Byrne. This will be an hour of snippets from his upcoming new show, so you might be in a position to laugh in all the right places and shape the final thing.

6. Paul Chowdhry

The Guardian called him "tawdry" but for many Chowdhry is considered the number one Asian comedian on the circuit. All we really care about is how funny he is though, and apparently he is as dry and witty as you like.

You can also catch Pete Firmin, Liam Williams, Phil Jerrod, Natan Caton, Matthew Crosby, Tom Parry, Mark Watson, Suzi Ruffie, The Steve Frost Improv all-stars, Andrew Maxwell, Patrick Monahan, Dave Johns, Comedy Club 4 Kids, Charlie Baker, Ali Cook, Kevin Day, Nick Revell, Otiz Cannelloni, Dane Baptiste and Tiernan Douieb.

MUSIC

FOR two weeks next month, Cambridge plays host to the News-backed Cambridge Summer Music Festival, now in its 37th year. Here are 10 excellent reasons to book tickets:

1 Great music – Featuring the classics of Beethoven's Missa Solemnis to Gershwin's Summertime; Brahms' First Symphony to light-hearted operettas; Mozart and Clementi sonatas to Chopin Nocturnes; 16th century choral to jazz and blues; new twists on old favourites, such as Elgar's Nimrod and Barber's Adagio adapted for eight cellos, and Liszt's Liebestraum No 3 adapted for the left-hand; at least one world premiere and six UK premieres.

2 World-renowned and beautiful venues – King's College Chapel is one of the world's most famous and spectacular music venues, but concert-goers can also relish discovering the hidden gems of Cambridge's other colleges from their chapels and theatres to St John's Old Divinity School, the city's beautiful churches and prestigious schools, the fine acoustics of the West Road Concert Hall, and the Fitzwilliam Museum's treasures, not to mention the glorious outdoor spaces.

3 Exciting, world-class performers – Multi-award-winning virtuoso trumpeter Alison Balsom teams up with one of the UK's foremost organists, David Goode, to fill Trinity College Chapel with music from baroque to contemporary; hear one of today's most beloved and versatile opera stars, Sir Willard White, in recital.

4 It's on your doorstep – Leave your excuses at home slumped dependently on the sofa while you go out to experience the real thing, live. See Nicholas McCarthy play specially adapted piano pieces for left-hand only; experience Lucy Parham's music and words portrait of the tender but volatile relationship of Chopin and George Sand in Nocturne, narrated by Patricia Hodge and Henry Goodman.

5 Variety is the spice of life – There is plenty of seasoning in this year's festival with sizzling sounds from Anglo-Colombian Classico Latino's audacious combinations of Latin rhythms and melodies and classical technique; the spicy mix of Mexican and British in the flute and guitar playing of Alejandro Escuer and Morgan Szymanski; while Tim Kliphuis

10 reasons to go to the Cambridge Summer Music Festival and his flamboyant jazz trio from Holland show that the North can also turn up the heat. If your tastes are more for the rich and lush, be transported to 19th century Romanticism with the acclaimed German orchestra Deutsche Philharmonie Merck in King's Chapel, or put a sparkler on your cake with Pink Champagne at the mayor's concert hosted by poet Ian McMillan.

6 The great outdoors – For five Wednesday evenings, starting on July 1, you have a chance to picnic, relax and unwind – or get in the swing – with energetic jazz, opera favourites, world folk music, a wind quartet and saxophone quintet taking you to some unusual places, all in the glorious surroundings of Cambridge's Botanic Garden. There's the family concert in Wandlebury Country Park, and street musicians popping up all over the city.

7 Great for kids – Family concerts at Wandlebury and the Junction; crazy music and magic with the Classic Buskers; two performances of John Rutter's musical A Piper of Hamelin, which will include 25 local children; and a week-long workshop for kids to get singing, dancing and acting, leading up to two performances of the The Wizard of Oz.

8 Pairs, Fours and Eights – This time it's not rowing! The Doric Quartet has paired up with violist and composer Brett Dean; the Škampa Quartet is paired with pianist Melvyn Tan; and a rare treat for those who want to double their enjoyment, the Wiham and Allegri Quartets are paired with each other for Mendelssohn's glorious Octet.

9 New discoveries – Experience the remarkable sounds of 16th century Spanish choral music with the Zenobia Scholars from Spain; the new generation of leading performers, including the Doric String Quartet, Jacquin Trio and award-winning pianist Tanya Bannister; and the dynamic exuberance of Project Jam Sandwich.

10 One-upmanship – It's not pretty but we've all been there. Get in first: "Have you heard the organist Kevin Bowyer? No? He's known for playing the 'unplayable'. It's true! I heard him at the Cambridge Summer Music Festival – absolutely breathtaking!"

CODEBREAKERS: On Thursday, July 9

■ We're full of laughs at the Arts Centre – it's Edinburgh Fringe Preview time again and to save you the massive expense of trekking north of the border we have CHARLIE BAKER (right) & MARK STEEL trying out their new material tomorrow (line-up may be subject to change). We're chuckling at 8pm.

■ Freddie & The Dreamers emerged as part of the 60s British Pop Invasion, scoring a number of hits on both sides of the Atlantic. THE DREAMERS relive the golden years on Saturday with such instantly recognisable favourites as If You Gotta Make a Fool of Somebody, I'm Telling You Now and You Were Made For Me from 8pm.

■ This year we have a new feel to the traditional LAST NIGHT OF THE FESTIVAL PROMS on Sunday at 7.30pm, the softer seats of the Arts Centre! This concert will comprise of a mix of musical numbers from the Haverhill Silver Band and the Haverhill Operatic Society but in a new format. The concert will end with the traditional Last Night of the Proms music with audience participation and flag-waving – might get draughty!

■ Join us for CODEBREAKERS on Thursday July 9 at 7.30pm when Dr Mark Baldwin gives a talk on one of the Second World War's most fascinating stories; of how a British team cracked the code of the Germans' ingenious ciphering machine.

■ On the cinema front we have a matinee of A ROYAL NIGHT OUT (12A) at 1.30pm on Monday July 6. On Tuesday July 7 at 7.30pm, MI5's Harry Pearce returns in SPOOKS: THE GREATER GOOD (15), a feature-length spin-off from the TV show. After a terrorist escapes custody during a routine handover, MI5's head of counter-terrorism takes the blame and appears to commit suicide. Finally THE AGE OF ADALINE (PG) is showing on Wednesday July 8 at 7.30pm. Born in 1908, Adaline Bowman lived a normal life until for some miraculous reason, a car accident made her forever ageless. She continues to spend the next eight decades (580 dog years!) living a solitary existence, never allowing herself to get close to anyone who might discover her secret. But then she meets handsome philanthropist Ellis. Talk about waiting for the right man to come along!

■ Look out for country music from Ireland's John Hogan on Saturday July 11, an NT Live broadcast of EVERYMAN on Thursday July 16 at 7pm and a live broadcast of Andre Rieu's 2015 Maastricht Concert on Saturday July 18 at 7pm.

"We have lived in the same house for 21 years and thought it was time to move on. We had heard of many horror stories regarding selling homes so we were very weary until we contacted CXG, wow just wow such a great team you have.

From walking into the office we sensed they knew what they were doing and they didn't let us down. They have made the whole experience smooth and stress free and as for our selling portfolio wow. All we can say is top class would definitely recommend to friends and family.

Oh might I add we sold within 72 hours!"

Your Guide to Moving Home

Moving home can be a complicated business and in the hectic run up to the big day it is all too easy to forget something vital. The team offers their readers this handy checklist to help avoid any major pitfalls. We suggest you tick them off as you go....

1 4-2 WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Packing – start packing and sorting through your belongings. Now is a good time to de-clutter and pack items rarely used. Make sure you have plenty of sturdy boxes, bubble wrap and sticky tape.
- ☐ Removal companies – get estimates from removal companies, checking that comprehensive insurance cover is available against damage or loss. Is there a packing and unpacking service? Confirm the date of your move with the firm you have chosen.
- ☐ Insurance – check on your home contents insurance policies to ensure that you are covered for the move, and covered at your new address.
- ☐ Utilities – make arrangements for your gas and electricity meters (plus water meters where relevant) to be read and all your appliances to be disconnected on the day of your move. Arrange to take over gas and electricity at your new address, and make sure that all appliances will be properly fitted, plumbed or connected.
- ☐ Telecommunications – Notify your telephone and broadband provider and ask them to make the necessary arrangements for a final account at your present address, and for taking over or installing telephone and broadband facilities at your new home.
- ☐ Post – Look into re-directing your post for a few months to make sure you receive all relevant correspondence.
- ☐ Children – Look into the possibility of your children, especially young children, staying with family or friends on the day of the move.
- ☐ Pets – Make arrangements for any pets to be booked into a cattery or kennels if required. Having your pets microchipped is a good idea and if already microchipped, have the address changed to your new one. Your vet can advise on this.

Change of address – tell companies and organisations that you are moving!

Notify:

- ☐ Employer
- ☐ Inland revenue
- ☐ Local council
- ☐ Banks or Building Societies
- ☐ Credit companies, store cards & other accounts
- ☐ Gas, Electricity and water boards
- ☐ Insurance companies
- ☐ Land / mobile phones
- ☐ Internet and cable / satellite TV providers
- ☐ Doctor, Dentist and Opticians
- ☐ DVLA
- ☐ Veterinary surgery
- ☐ TV Licensing

3 1 WEEK TO GO:

- ☐ Delivery address – change delivery address of your Cambridge News, milk, groceries and fuel to your new address as appropriate.
- ☐ Laundry – do any last minute laundry that you can – have you arranged for a plumber to disconnect your washing machine correctly?

- ☐ Kitchen cupboards – go through your kitchen cupboards and throw out anything not in date. Also check that all jars and bottles are correctly sealed before packing.

- ☐ Fridges / Freezers – empty and clean out in preparation for moving. If you are moving a freezer and its contents, turn it up to maximum for a couple of days before you move.

- ☐ Valuables / documents – put these in safe place for moving day

4 2-1 DAYS TO GO:

- ☐ Packing – pack a bag for overnight essentials and toiletries and finish all remaining packing into boxes. Remember to label which room each box is destined for.

- ☐ Snack box – pack a box for the kitchen to include essentials like tea, coffee and sugar, as well as the kettle and mugs! Also include other snacks as necessary.

- ☐ Dismantle and disconnect – take down curtains, fixtures and fittings and disconnect white goods ready for transport.

- ☐ Outdoor items – make sure that these are stacked together and ready to be moved.

- ☐ Mobile – place your mobile on charge the night before moving and ensure that all relevant people have your number.

5 ON MOVING DAY:

AT YOUR OLD ADDRESS:

- ☐ Strip beds and pack bedding and nightclothes.
- ☐ Finish packing toiletries box.
- ☐ Direct removal firm personnel or friends helping you move as to what needs to be done.
- ☐ Turn off electric appliances.
- ☐ Disconnect cooker.
- ☐ Turn off boiler / central heating.
- ☐ Turn off water.
- ☐ Read gas meter.
- ☐ Read electricity meter.
- ☐ Secure all windows.
- ☐ Lock all doors.
- ☐ Make final checks and leave key as arranged with new owners.

AT YOUR NEW HOME:

- ☐ Open up & have a look around the new house.
- ☐ Locate fuse box, gas and electric meter and stop cock for reference.
- ☐ Take readings on gas, electric and water meters as appropriate.
- ☐ Organise the direction of boxes to appropriate rooms.
- ☐ Check the van after all is unloaded.
- ☐ Make the beds up for the evening.
- ☐ Sit down and relax – unpack the other boxes the next day.

EMG on cusp of opening Kia franchise on Ely site

EMG Motor Group is preparing to open its latest Kia franchise in Ely, taking the firm's total number of Kia franchises in the region to four.

The region's latest dealership will host its open weekend on July 10-12. EMG has spent £250k revamping the site which had been the firm's Ford outlet.

"We have still got the Ford aftersales franchise there, but the Kia arrangement is one we're very happy with. It's our fourth Kia dealership – we have franchises in Thetford, Cambridge, King's Lynn and now Ely," said group sales director Kevin Driscoll.

"Jimmy Sammons will be the general manager, and the site will offer both new and used Kias – Kia has always been a strong used car seller there and it's a multi-franchise site so there's lots of makes, not least the Ford base which has been very strong for us."

"The showroom has been remodelled and has been expanded to some 450 square metres which will showcase 11 or 12 cars internally. There will be four new roles at the dealership – technician, valet, service advisor and sales executive. We will now be the only main dealer in the Ely area after the demise of Vauxhall a few years ago."

Kia's recent success – the firm has sold an astonishing five million cars worldwide in the last four years – is down to its canny mix of sensible pricing and unexpectedly high quality.

"Kia has just brought out the new Sorento which is right up to speed and is pitching against prestige marques," says Kevin. "We're getting people in Audis and Range Rovers coming in to look at them. The Sportage, Rio and the cee'd are always very popular."

"All in all its exciting times for us, Kia and the local population."

The new Kia dealership will be directly opposite the main Tesco site near the station.

The Grand Opening takes place this weekend. EMG will be selling 15 brand new cars "at cost price" when the news showroom opens, so well worth a visit. See emgmotorgroup.com or call (01353) 611611 for further details.

EXPANDING: EMG group sales manager Kevin Driscoll is delighted to announce the opening of the franchise's fourth Kia dealership – the latest, in Ely, opens at the weekend

THE GOLF ESTATE: BlueMotion star

Three-cylinder options for Volkswagen trio

UK ORDER books are now open for a raft of new ultra-frugal petrol models in the Golf hatchback, Estate and SV.

Powered by a new three-cylinder 1.0-litre 115PS turbocharged petrol engine, the new Golf TSI BlueMotion returns 65.7mpg with CO2 emissions of just 99g/km.

Also available for the first time with a BlueMotion engine is the option of a DSG automatic gearbox. These cars combine the economy benefits of a diesel with the upfront price benefits of a petrol, with the Golf Match TSI BlueMotion costing £19,740. First deliveries are due in September.

At the heart of the TSI BlueMotion is a 1.0-litre (999cc) three-cylinder turbocharged TSI engine from the EA211 series. This generates 115PS from 5,000 to 5,500rpm; standstill to 62mph takes 9.7 seconds while top speed is 127mph. With 200Nm, the TSI BlueMotion has the highest specific torque of any large-scale production series of petrol engines.

COMPETITION

WIN a day out by train for TWO!

Summer is here and longer days mean that you can get out and about more, so why not use this as a great excuse to visit one of the fantastic attractions in London!

We've teamed up with National Rail and are offering five lucky Haverhill News readers a pair of First Class Off-Peak Return rail travel to London this summer.

Travelling by train remains the best way to visit London's top attractions for less and you don't have to be a competition winner to reap the benefits. There are over 150 2FOR1 offers available in London when you travel by train, including Theme Parks, Scare Attractions, Museums, Galleries, Cruises, Afternoon Teas and much, much more!

Choose from some of the Capital's best-loved attractions, such as ZSL London Zoo, Kensington Palace, the London Eye, City Cruises, and 'The Woman in Black' at the Fortune Theatre – as well as lesser known gems such as a chocolate themed Afternoon Tea at the Hilton on Park Lane and the Florence Nightingale Museum.

Plan your journey and download your 2FOR1 vouchers at or pickup a 2FOR1 London leaflet from your local National Rail station.

To be in with a chance of winning a pair of tickets, just answer this question:
How many 2FOR1 offers are available in London?

Send your answer to: National Rail Competition, Haverhill News, P O Box 268, Cambridge CB24 6HF to arrive no later than 9th July 2015. You can also answer by email at competitions@cambridge-news.co.uk

Please put National Rail Competition in the subject box of your email and include your name, address, postcode and daytime phone number together with your answer. Usual Haverhill News rules apply.

Graduate Education Manager

Department of Physics • £34,233-£45,954

The Department of Physics is currently undergoing a full strategic review of its administration and is looking for a highly motivated individual to lead the development of its graduate student operation. As the author of this element of significant organisation change, you will be working towards the establishment of a Graduate Office which can effectively support both the processes involved in the graduate student journey, and the development of Departmental policy in the arena of graduate education. The post offers an excellent opportunity for a proactive individual with significant interest in initiating change to create this new role of Graduate Education Manager and contribute to sustaining the success of the research and teaching life of the Cavendish Laboratory.

Department of Physics • £34,233-£45,954

The Department of Physics is currently undergoing a full strategic review of its administration and is looking for a highly motivated and professionally-focused individual to lead the development of its support for HR policy and practice. You will be responsible for the review and development of policy in relation to the management of research and support staff, undertaking workforce planning, and the implementation of actions required to sustain the Department's Athena SWAN Gold award. Annand in form to secure medal cup

JOHN Annand won Haverhill's Cecil Darken Cup thanks to his impressive scores in their recent monthly medal competitions.

Annand totalled 131 from his best two scores of nett 65 and 66 from the April, May and June medals, finishing eight shots clear of his rivals.

Peter Bowers and Simon Cousins had to settle for joint-second after posting 139 from scores of 71 and 68.

The June medal saw 87 players involved and it was Paul Sullivan who took the overall win with a round of 65.

He won Division Two as well, finishing one ahead of Annand and two in front of Frazer Curl, who took third on countback.

Andy Gage won Division One on countback from Gerry Scott after both scored 67, with Peter Bowers one back in third.

Division Three honours went to Paul Sharpe on countback from Lawrie Drysdale after they scored 68, and Peter Young took third on 69.

Geoff Bush registered 43 points to win the IFF Challenge, winning Division Two as well.

Curl was second on 42 and Stuart King was two points further behind in third.

Dave Pipe won Division One on countback from Terry Lyons and Jack Warwick after they all scored 39.

Peter Jennings won Division Three on 38, one ahead of Geoff Dorkins and three clear of John Ward.

Carol Day hit form in the ladies' midweek stableford after scoring 42 points.

She was four clear of runner-up Gerry Wheatley, with Linda Alexander third on 33.

Mark Booth of Colmworth & North Beds triumphed in the professional competition when Haverhill hosted their PGA East Region Pro-Am.

Booth carded a five under par 65, finishing three clear of joint-runners-up Jason Levermore of Channels and Stapleford Abbotts' Chase Davis.

Haverhill members Glen Hughes and Anthony Archer, along with Booth and Braintree's Paul Bragg, were part of the four who won the team competition.

The medal format, with the best two scores on each hole counting, saw them come out on top with a 16 under par total of 124.

James Jankowski, Barry Cooper, Peter Phillips and Harry Youngblood took second on countback from Ed Morton (EM Golf Studio), Dan Bentley, and Colin and Ben Bradnam after both teams totalled 125.

Haverhill's men booked their place in the third round of the Stenson Cup after edging out Newton Green 6½-5½ at home and now travel to Waldringfield on July 11.
